Current plate (A)

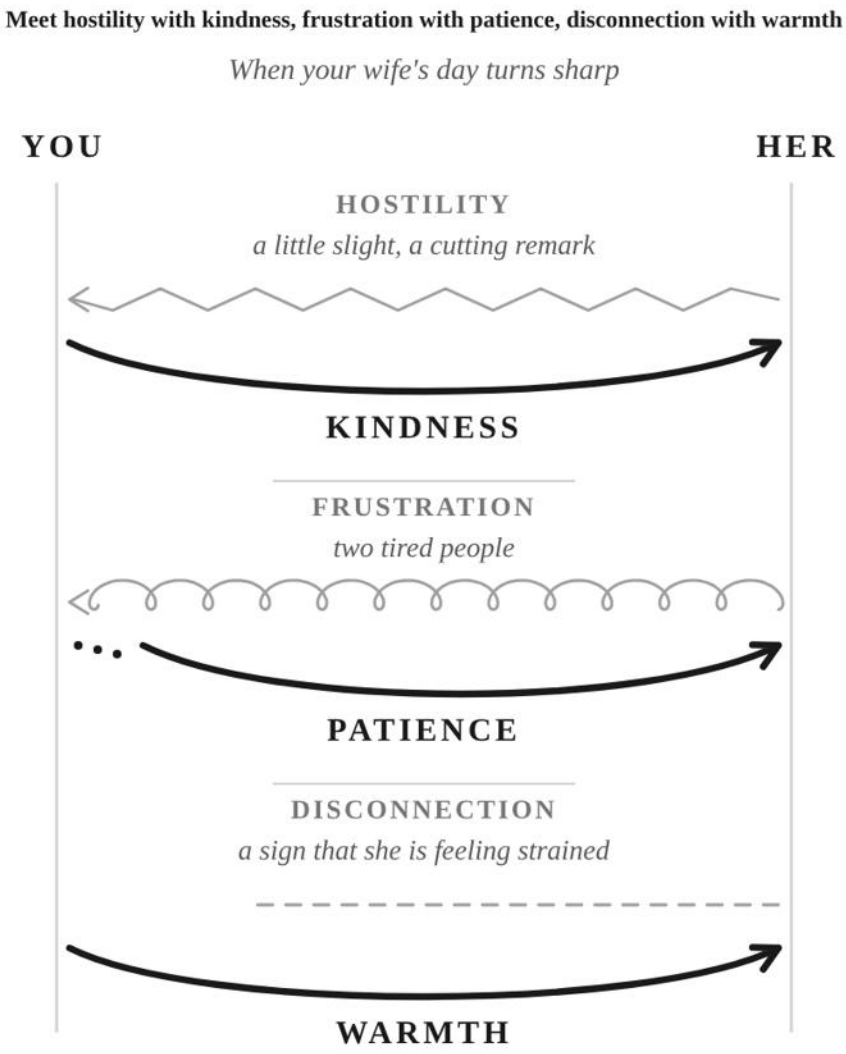

Draws only the first pair: hostility met with kindness. No patience, no warmth.

Roll up your sleeves before you open your mouth.

Option D: three exchanges, one steady answer

Her edge comes in three shapes: sharp, tangled, cut off. Your answer goes back to her every time, smooth and heavy: kindness, patience (after a pause), warmth. Risk: the three answers look alike, and the pause dots are small on a phone.

"Was I the best part of her day?"

Option E: her day, held up three times

Her day dips three times. Each time you push up from underneath. Each lift has one thing to do. Builds 'best part of her day' into the drawing. Risk: can read as a mood chart ('managing her moods is your job'), and 'let it go' can sound passive.
